

MCCA is Hiring a Unique Entry Level Marketing Professional

Preferred candidate is an entry/mid-level marketing professional that can join our dynamic team in a unique market within the finance and investments sector.

About Us

MCCA is a community owned Islamic Finance and Investments institution.

Established over 30 years ago MCCA organisation with deep community ties, financing over 54 mosques and Islamic centres.

Our total mortgages originated exceed $2 Billion and we currently have in excess of $100 million in funds under management.

As the pioneers of Islamic finance and investments in Australia, MCCA is heavily involved in community sponsorships and events often working with charity organisations and Islamic societies/associations.

Though a degree would be advantageous for a Marketing Assistant, in the absence of formal qualifications look for key attributes such as:

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Attention to detail
- A high degree of organisation with a capacity to work independently
- Ability to constantly improve and optimise sponsorships and events often working with charity organisations and Islamic societies/associations.
